

Activity Name - National Energy Conservation Day (India)

Date: 14.12.2024

Time: 10:30 am to 12:30 pm

Venue: TPO's Conference Room

Level of Activity: Level 1

Name of the speaker: Er. Somak Mitra, Sr. Manager, West Bengal Power Development Corporation Ltd.

Participants: All students, Faculty and Staff members

Total Participants: 55

Object of the event: To spread awareness among students, faculty members and staff members, about the importance and modalities of conservation of energy.

Key outcomes of the activity: All the students and other participants came to know about the various aspects of conservation of energy and its impact in the society.

Benefit in terms of Learning: In respect of global warming and fossil fuels, the speaker made the participants understand what are the ways to use other renewable energy sources and to reverse the global warming, which has a devastating effect on human civilization.

